

CORONER'S JURY BLAMES SPEED IN AUTO DEATH

A coroner's jury Monday afternoon blamed the auto accident death June 1 of Harry O. Wigle, 29, Washington, D. C., on excessive speed.

The verdict returned after about 15 minutes' deliberation held that the driver, Daune M. Hall, 19, Gettysburg R. 4, was operating his father's car at a speed that was unsafe on the wet highway and unsafe because of the condition of the car. Testimony showed the car had smooth tires and had a tendency to "weave."

The accident occurred about 6:35 o'clock the morning of June 1 at the John George property, six-tenths of a mile west of New Oxford on the Lincoln Highway. Hall's car skidded on the wet curve, turned around and went off the highway out of control and had its right side heaved off by a utility pole.

Wigle died of a fractured skull and internal injuries about the time he reached the Warner Hospital by ambulance. Hall was unhurt. Wigle, described as a friend of the Hall family, resided with the Halls and Hall and Wigle were enroute to Hanover where they were employed.

Only 4 Testify

Officer Robert Brady of the Gettysburg substation of the state police, who investigated; Charles W. Harney, Barlow, first at the scene after the crash; Vinton D. Hall, father of the driver, and Daune Hall himself were the only witnesses to testify at the inquest held in the main court room by Dr. C. G. Crist, Adams County coroner.

Harker said he was following a quarter mile behind Hall and was going about 45 miles and hour. He estimated Hall's to have been about the same. He did not see the crash but found the car sitting along the

LET CONTRACTS FOR NEW SCHOOL AT NEW OXFORD

The elementary school to be constructed at New Oxford by the Lower Adams Joint School Authority will cost $372,499, according to contracts let by the Authority at a meeting in the New Oxford High School Monday night.

The bids had been secured about a month ago when details were released concerning the general trend of the bids, which ranged from the final low total of $372,499 to over $400,000.

Allen F. Feiser, Taneytown, was awarded the general contract for a low bid of $261,078. The bid accepted was that for alternate No. 1 in the specification for floors, with the authority choosing to accept the bid for a terrazzo floor rather than one of asphalt tile. Feiser's base bid was $258,324 with the terrazzo floor alternate bid being $2,754.

Site On Berlin Street

H. N. Bange, Hanover, was granted the bid for electrical work, with his bid of $32,493, or $31,878 base bid plus $615 on a first alternate for a time mechanism, getting approval.

Both the heating and ventilation and the plumbing bids went to Diller-Wierman, Inc., of Hanover. The base bid by Diller-Wierman for the heating and ventilation was $47,495. The final bid with various alternates which was accepted by the board as the lowest bid containing the alternates, was $51,938.

The plumbing contract was let to Diller-Wierman for $26,990.

Work on the new 18-room elementary building to be located along Berlin St., east of the present high school structure, is expected to begin within the next few weeks and be completed in about one year.

Senior High School Band To Rehearse

Director Robert Zeigler has called a rehearsal of the Senior High School Band for Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the high school band room when preparation will be made for a program or parade to display the band's new uniforms.

The new uniforms, which were to have been worn for the first time in the May 30 parade, have not yet been seen by the public.

New members who were promoted to the Senior Band from the Junior Band need not report for this rehearsal, Mr. Zeigler said, but should attend the practice on Wednesday, June 17, at 7:30 p.m.

FORTENBAUGH IS DAC SPEAKER AT ASPERS MONDAY

Dr. Robert Fortenbaugh, head of the Department of History at Gettysburg College and author of a pamphlet on colonial American history being distributed throughout the state by the Daughters of the American Colonists to new citizens upon their naturalization, was the speaker Monday evening at a regular meeting of the Manor of Maske Chapter of the DAC.

The meeting followed a covered dish picnic supper and was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dr. Aspers, with husbands and invited friends as guests for the session, the last the chapter will hold until October.

A period of brief devotions was conducted by Mrs. Roy E. Zinn, the chaplain, and after the supper Doctor Fortenbaugh, who was introduced by the chapter regent, Miss Margaret McMillan, spoke.

"High Highlights"

In his preliminary remarks Doctor Fortenbaugh took notice of the approach of Flag Day by describing the English flags that waved over the various colonies in America and then talked on "High Highlights of Colonial History," covering much of the material he used in the DAC pamphlet, labeled "Greetings to New Citizens" which he prepared at the

Staff Officers Work Today On Final Details Of Korean Armistice; Ready This Week

By ROBERT B. TUCKMAN
PANMUNJOM (AP)—Staff officers worked today on final details of a Korean armistice as hundreds of thousands of South Koreans demonstrated violently against the impending truce that will leave their nation divided.

Even as Koreans surged wildly through the streets of Seoul, Allied and Communist teams met in the tiny truce hut at Panmunjom for 12 minutes amid increasing signs that an armistice may be signed within the week.

Although an Allied spokesman gave no hint of what took place in the hut, the briefings of the meeting indicated that only finishing touches remained before a cease-fire agreement was reached.

OFFICER SAYS 70 ATOM BOMBS CAN RUIN STATE

"Pennsylvania is just seven hours from overnight destruction. And Pennsylvania will be a primary target for enemy bombs because just 70 atom bombs dropped in Pennsylvania could wipe out 78 per cent of the nation's industrial capacity. Seventeen bombs can badly cripple us."

With those statements Col. Lewis F. Acker, chief of Air Raid warning services of the State Council of Defense, brought home Monday night to approximately 200 service club members, gathered at the American Legion, the necessity of preparation for possible enemy bombing in this area.

"We are still living in a past era, mentally — wars tomorrow will be won or lost overnight. The day of the long campaign has passed," the Air force colonel said. He spoke at a joint dinner session of the Rotary, Lions, Exchange and Soroptimist clubs held at the Legion home on Baltimore St. Burgess William G. Weaver, county civil defense administrator, presided at the joint session.

Jet Planes, Atom Bombs

"Japan lost World War II because it did not know that the days of long campaigns are past. After the sneak attack on Pearl Harbor there was nothing to stop Japan from sailing into our harbors and taking over our nation. The only thing that stopped them was that they failed to grasp the fact. Wars had always been fought with long campaigns to get primary objectives and then

USO DRIVE WILL CLOSE JUNE 15

"One big reason for supporting the Adams County USO appeal is the fact that, according to the latest figures, there are 234,832 Pennsylvania boys and girls in the Armed Forces, of whom 979 come from Adams County. The are receiving the advantages of USO services wherever they may be stationed, all over the world," said Dean W. E. Tilberg in making a final appeal for donations to the USO. The drive closes June 15.

There are five USO operations in this State, and the attendance at over 300 USO clubs now in operation throughout the world is well over 3,600,000 a month. Many of our friends and neighbors are among those from this county who are now in uniform. Everyone will want to contribute to the Adams County USO appeal.

"Besides the USO Clubs, which have been hailed the world over as 'a home away from home' for service personnel, the USO maintains lounges in most of the important railroad terminals where military travel is heaviest, to offer our boys and girls in uniform a little comfort and relaxation during long waits between trains. They also provide reliable travel information to GI's and their families when they are on the move. All of these services are provided by our contributions to USO. Send your contribution to: Miss Jean Musselman, in care of the Gettysburg National Bank."

MISS SNYDER IS STATE OFFICER

Miss Alice M. Snyder, member of the Gettysburg High School faculty and first president of the Omega Chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma when it was organized here in 1948, was elected first vice president of the state organization of the educational sorority at a state weekend convention at Bedford Springs.

Miss Snyder returned home Monday evening with Miss Evelyn Orner, Arendtsville, treasurer of the local chapter, and Miss Mary Hartman, Cashtown, the local president.

Miss Snyder will be responsible for arranging a Pennsylvania breakfast at the regional convention to be held at Louisville, Ky., August 10 to 12. She has served as chairman of the state unit's Pioneer Women Committee and last summer at the national convention in Chicago she was a member of the convention chorus.

Among the speakers at Bedford Springs was Dr. Clara Cokerel, assistant superintendent of the schools of Armstrong County. The new president is Ethel Jane Powell, recently retired from the Millersville State Teachers' College faculty, and other new officers include: Dr. Elizabeth Stadlander, Allegheny College, second vice president, and Dr. Mabel Studebaker, former NEA president parliamentarian.

The local chapter will hold its annual picnic Friday at the Mont Alto State Park.

During the four years since the club's formation, the group has had two years of sewing, one year of preparing snacks, and one year of home improvement studies. Various prizes have been awarded to the club during that time.

MISS RUTH DOUD RESIGNS HER POSITION AT "Y"

Miss Ruth Doud, executive director of the YWCA since the fall of 1949, has resigned her position in Gettysburg to accept a position with a YWCA in Mount Vernon, N. Y. The resignation was reported by Mrs. Robert Fortenbaugh, chairman of the Personnel Committee of the "Y," at a meeting of the board of directors Monday night.

The resignation will become effective September 1. It was accepted with regret and the committee was instructed to apply to the National Board of the YWCA for applications for a new executive director.

Miss Doud came here from Scranton, where she was executive director of the YWCA there. She began her "Y" work as a volunteer in the Scranton association in 1916. In 1917 she was appointed industrial and Girl Reserve secretary at the York YWCA, returning to Scranton in 1919 to serve as industrial secretary for a ten-year period.

Miss Rummel Enters Church Work Study

Miss Barbara Rummel, of Gettysburg, went Sunday to New Windsor, Md., where she will spend the next six weeks in training for Brethren Volunteer Service work. Following this period of basic training, she will be assigned work for the balance of her year's enlistment.

Brethren Volunteer Service was started by the Church of the Brethren in 1948 when its youth requested a program "by which they might demonstrate their consecration to the Master and to their church." The program is voluntary. They serve for periods of one, two and three years without pay. The program cares for maintenance needs of the youth.

Areas of service are located with migrant workers in California, Texas and bordering states. Projects of sanitation are carried on in Florida among poor income families. In Home Mission areas of Kentucky, West Virginia and other states, Bible Schools and classes of Christian Education and periods of recreation are led by these young folk. Foreign areas of service include Puerto Rico, Germany, Austria and Greece.

Rash Of Tornadoes Leaves 128 Dead, 750 Hurt In Michigan And Ohio; Flint Victim Of Big Blow

FLINT, Mich. (AP)—A volley of tornadoes roared through southeastern Michigan and northwestern Ohio last night, staggering the two states with an appalling toll which today hit 133 dead and more than 700 injured.

Flint, a booming industrial city of 163,000, some 70 miles north of Detroit lay like a bullseyed bomb target in the wake of the most deadly of the half dozen or more horrifying twisters. Mangled bodies of 111 victims were scattered over the city's outskirts, State Police reported.

Forty houses on one street in the Flint outskirts were leveled with one fell swoop. Casualties ran high. The Flint tornado, which hedged-hopped easterly through Michigan's "Thumb" to Lake Huron, dwarfed half a dozen others which struck along a 350-mile north-south line from Tawas City, Mich., to Bowling Green, O.

All in all, more than 200 persons were injured and property damage ran into the millions.

At least a dozen persons were killed in two Ohio tornadoes. Eight were killed in the Cuyameta area, two at Cleveland, and one each at Elyria and Ceylon.

In Michigan four persons were known dead near Erie, just north

HOLD MORELOCK FOR COURT IN PINBALL CASE

Monroe Morelock, proprietor of the Littlestown Newsstand, 44 J. Queen St., Littlestown, was held for court Monday afternoon by Justice of the Peace John H. Bashore on a charge of setting up and maintaining gambling devices in his place of business. He furnished $500 bail.

Morelock and Bernard Wolf, proprietor of the Texas Lunch, 46 S. Queen St., were arrested May 28, when state police of the Gettysburg substation seized three pinball machines in the newsstand and one in the lunchroom. They claimed that winners were "paid off."

Wolf waived a hearing Saturday and posted $500 bail for court. Morelock was given a hearing Monday afternoon, at which two 15-year-old Littlestown boys testified that they had "played the machines" in the newsstand and had been paid "over the counter" when they won.

Three other pinball cases, in which machines were seized in McSherrystown on May 23 by state police, are pending. Hearings are scheduled Thursday before Justice of the Peace Robert P. Snyder.

Arrested in McSherrystown were Robert Strausbaugh, proprietor of Strausbaugh's Restaurant, 344 South St.; Raymond Smith, proprietor of the Central Service Station, 334 Main St.; and Charles L. Sentz, gas station operator, Main, Howard and Elm Sts. Five machines were seized, two at the restaurant, two at the Central Service Station and one at the Sentz place, police said. The defendants furnished $500 bail each.

CLASS CREATES SCHOLARSHIP

Members of the class of 1913 of Gettysburg College at their 40th reunion Saturday evening at the Lutheran Theological Seminary rectory voted to establish a class scholarship.

A fund of $2,513 has been collected. It will be open for more contributions during the coming years.

Dr. and Mrs. Charles F. Sanders were guests of the class. Dr. Sanders recalled early college days. Dr. Frank H. Kramer was the official representative of the college. Dr. and Mrs. Walter C. Langsam visited with the group and the former spoke briefly. Mrs. Kramer also was a guest.

Dr. Robert Fortenbaugh, West Broadway, was re-elected president of the class; J. Perry King, Kittanning, vice president; B. Clinton Ritz, Waynesboro, secretary-treasurer; George Garman, Reisterstown, representative to the alumni council, and Frank A. Kister, New York City, class agent.

Forty-seven attended the reunion of which 25 were members of the class. Rev. Dr. Frank Edwin Smith, Boston, read an original poem, "We're Forty." All members of the class gave reports on their activities and interests.

LLOYD DECKER EXPIRES AT 62

William Penn Lloyd "Shorty" Decker, 62, of 243 Baltimore St., died Monday night at 11 o'clock at the Warner Hospital from the effects of a cerebral hemorrhage. He had been admitted to the hospital last Thursday.

A native of Huntersdown, he was a son of the late John and Anna Brinkerhoff Decker and resided in Huntersdown for the first 30 years of his life, before moving to Gettysburg.

For more than 25 years he was a clerk at the People's Cash Store, operated by the late W. P. Gilliland. He had been in ill health for a number of years, before becoming critically ill last Thursday. He was admitted to the hospital on his 25th wedding anniversary.

Services Thursday

Surviving are his wife, the former Miss Ruth Ellen Shue; two children, William Decker, at home, and Mrs. Anna Louise Angell, Gettysburg; a grandson; his stepmother, Mrs. Grace Decker, Gettysburg R. 2, and a brother, Howard, Hanover.

He was a member of the Methodist Church, the Moose and Eagles here and the POS of A of New Oxford.

Funeral services Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Deatrick Funeral Home, Baltimore St., with the Rev. Charles Gibson, Westminster, former Gettysburg Methodist minister, officiating. Friends may call at the funeral home Wednesday evening after 7 o'clock.

Gettysburg

When Wickerham completed his report, the discussion began.

A number of factors entered into the anxiety expressed by some directors. One was the possible results of the present legislature. Directors who were in the minority in the final voting pointed out the possibility that the school districts will have to pay a larger share of the cost of education after the present state legislature solves its tax problems.

Franklin Opposed

Other directors agreed that the state is having its problems of financing but held that if Gettysburg gets approval before any change the state would keep up the reimbursement it had promised.

"The state cannot go back on its commitments, but the legislature does want to get out from under. And if we delay it is entirely possible that we will wind up having to pay a greater part of the cost of the building," Dr. Keefeauver told the group. "What the state has approved will have to be paid, but the state may make sure that on future building it will not have to pay so much."

Franklin, in the roll call on whether the joint board should proceed with construction of a new high school addition, voted unanimously against the proposal.

Opposed To Auditorium

Gift Walter of the Franklin board told the group: "I've contacted some of our biggest property holders in Franklin Twp. to try to sell this program to them. They said they could go along on construction of school rooms but not a 1,500-seat auditorium."

Hugh C. McIlhenny, of the Straban board pointed out that "the state won't approve the present library, and that's why we need to use the present auditorium for a library."

Dr. Keefeauver said the local high school is up for accreditation review again next year. If it does not have standard approved facilities it can lose its rating, which would make it much more difficult for its graduates to secure entrance into accredited institutions of higher learning. At the present time the graduates can enter the schools on the basis of their high school diplomas.

"If we go ahead and get bids as soon as we can, we'll have cost figures by the time we are ready to make a decision and the legislature will have finished its work and we'll know where we stand in regard to reimbursement from the state," one director said.

Plan Public Meeting

Allen A. Weikert, Highland Twp. board president, told the group: "Highland is going to hold a public meeting. We know there are people in our township against both projects (the high school addition and the new elementary school). We as a board are not going in unless we are sure of the sentiment of the people. We want Dr. Keefeauver and Dick Brown (Attorney Richard A. Brown, joint school board attorney) to come out and tell the people the facts and then let them decide."

During the discussion the board got around to talking about the possibility of holding half day sessions—with half the children attending in the morning and half in the afternoon. When it was pointed out by other directors that this would involve higher transportation costs, and that under state law two sets of teachers would have to be hired, the idea was dropped as being as expensive as building new structures.

Letha J. Hartman, Cumberland director, argued: "If we were getting better teachers or more education, it would be one thing, but all we seem to be doing is spending more and more money for new school buildings and closing the old."

Keefeauver's response was: "We aren't closing anything at the high school."

In response to a question on whether the contemplated school construction would take care of any additional students which may come under a revision of the county plan for school attendance areas, Keefeauver replied: "We are not taking any increases in the size of our district into consideration."

When elementary school problems came up for discussion after Franklin Twp. board members had left the meeting—Franklin is a member of the jointure only at the high school level—it was announced that preliminary plans for the Colt Park building have been approved at Harrisburg. Only the location of one storage room was changed at Harrisburg, the board was told.

Discuss Government Land

After the decision to go ahead with grade school building plans was reached, there was a discussion about what to do about the government land being sought for school use east of the high school building. The bill authorizing the Park Service to sell the tract to the joint school district has a sub-committee okay at Washington, Director Jacob Appier said. It is not yet out of committee but its chances of passing Congress in a few weeks were described as a "probability."

Although no vote was taken on the question, directors who expressed an opinion advised that the move to get the government land should not be dropped at this stage. If the land becomes available, decision could be reached then on what use shall be made of it, it was pointed out.

In this connection Dr. Wickerham said in reply to a Highland Twp. director's remark that a newspaper story last week said the Gettysburg directors favor the government land over Colt Park for the new grade school building.

"I'd like to clear that up right

The Iris Club will meet at the home of Mrs. Arthur Phiel, York St., Thursday evening.

Herbert McMillan Gould, vice president of the holdings division of General Motors, Detroit, accompanied by Secretary of the Interior Douglas McKay, visited The McMillan now. There was no poll taken of the Gettysburg board members (last Monday) and there was only general talk around the table. No board action was taken and the board did not go on record on the matter at all."

During the elementary school part of the meeting the board ordered annual school rental paid to the Hoffman Orphanage; told the Property Committee to make a recommendation on High Street school fence repairs and get estimates on a new furnace for the Lincoln building; ordered electrical receptacles placed in a number of rooms at Lincoln building and told the Property committee to check on water pressure problems at the same building.

Benefit For Teachers

The board, before engaging in the discussion on building plans, voted to allow teachers to take up to five days of their sick leave in case of family emergencies. At present, the teachers are allowed five days sick leave per year, which can accumulate up to 20 days. At the same time they are allowed three days' leave from their teaching duties if there is a death in the family.

A contract with the Minneapolis-Honeywell Regulator Co., of Philadelphia, to provide periodic service for the automatic heat control system at the high school, at a cost of $60 per year, was approved.

A recommendation by the American Heating and Ventilation Co. of Philadelphia inspectors, that a new rear lining be placed in the firebox of the Meade School furnace at a cost of $17 was accepted.

Order Supplies

The contract for general supplies for the school system for next year was let to Roberts and Meck, Harrisburg, and the order for janitor supplies was let to the Baer Paper Co. of York. Roberts and Meck bid $3,163.83. Other bids ranged from $3,298.10 to $3,314.84. The Baer janitor supplies bid was $264.38 with other bids ranging up to $587.50. The art supplies bid went to J. L. Hammitt Co., Newark, N. J., on a bid of $765, the low among two bids.

The business manager was instructed to ask for bids on coal and oil for next year. The district, Secretary Kenneth Reinhart reported, used 46,055 gallons of oil last year at a cost of $4,141.56. The treasurer's report showed income for last month, including the $42,309.14 balance from the end of April, of $61,675.73. Expenses totaled $32,525.51 of which $27,999.93 was for instruction. The balance at the beginning of June was $29,150.22.

The cafeteria report showed income of $5,619.90. Expenses included $634.32 for salaries, $1,197.62 for provisions and $45.00 for maintenance, leaving a balance at the beginning of this month of $3,741.35. Total assets of the cafeteria are $4,418.50.

The High School Activities fund showed deposits of $1,918.08 and withdrawals of $3,907.02 during the month, leaving a balance of $7,133.15. The athletic association report showed the fund began May with a balance of $2,518.79, had receipts of $412.75 and expenditures of $632.25 and ended the month with a balance of $2,299.29.

Weddings

Motter-Wenger

Miss Jean Elizabeth Wenger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Walter Wenger, Chambersburg, became the bride of James R. Motter, son of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Motter, Littlestown, Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the First Evangelical United Brethren Church, Chambersburg. The Rev. Roy H. Wenger, cousin of the bride, performed the double-ring ceremony before an altar decorated with white gladioli, ferns and lighted candles.

Preceding the ceremony, Miss Winifred Ross, organist, accompanied the soloist, William Wenger, in a half hour recital. Mr. Wenger sang "Because," "If I Could Tell You" and "Through the Years." During the ceremony he sang "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white nylon net and Chantilly lace designed with a chapel train. Her nuptial veil of nylon net was embellished with seed pearls. She carried a Bible with white horses and her only jewelry, a double string of pearls, was a gift of the groom.

Reception Is Held

Miss Shirley Anne Wenger, Chambersburg, cousin of the bride, was the maid of honor. Her gown was of mint green nylon with matching headband. She carried a bouquet of yellow roses. Miss Lucille Deardorff, Fayetteville, a classmate of the bride, and Mrs. Anthony Di Muzio, Greenbelt, Md., sister of the groom, were of the bridesmaids. Their gowns were of yellow nylon net with matching Chantilly lace bolero jackets and matching headband. They carried bouquets of mixed flowers.

John Holbert, classmate of the groom, was best man, and the ushers were Edward Wenger, Gene Motter, Lowie Fuhrman and Anthony Di Muzio. After a reception in the church social hall the couple left for a honeymoon in the New England states. Both bride and groom were graduated from the Shippensburg State Teachers College this spring. Out-of-town guests were from Altoona, Washington, D. C., Greenbelt, Md., Fort Pierce, Fla.

Shelley-Drabenstadt

Mrs. Eva Mae Drabenstadt, 24 W. Middle St., formerly of Harrisburg, became the bride of Laurence Ellisworth Shelley, Harrisburg, Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Chapman and Mr. and Mrs. Walker Edmondson Sr., W. Middle St. in a single-ring ceremony performed by the Rev. Clyde R. Brown, pastor of the Gettysburg Presbyterian Church. Mrs. Edmondson is a sister of the bride.

The bride wore a navy blue sheer nylon dress and a corsage of white carnations, stephanotis and baby's breath.

The attendants were Mr. and Mrs. Edmondson. The latter wore a navy sheer nylon dress. Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Edmondson residence.

Roberts-Henderson

Miss Evelyn Henderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Henderson, Gettysburg R. 4, and J. Marvin Roberts, son of Mrs. Mary Roberts, were married at 4 p.m. Saturday in Grace Reformed Church, Taneytown, by the Rev. Morgan Andreas, pastor. The couple are residing at 119 Chambersburg St.

Abbott-Brewer

In the quiet sanctuary of the Trinity Lutheran Church, Hagerstown, Miss Carrie Elizabeth Brewer became the bride of James L. Abbott on Saturday at 11:30 a.m.

Rev. Dr. Wilson P. Ard performed the single ring ceremony uniting the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul E. Brewer, Hagerstown, and the son of John A. Abbott Sr., also of Hagerstown, and the late Mrs. Abbott.

The new Mrs. Abbott graduated from Hagerstown High School in the class of 1949 and attended Columbia Business College.

Mr. Abbott graduated from the Hagerstown High School in the class of 1944 and served two years with the U. S. Army in the European theatre. He received his Bachelor of Arts degree from the Gettysburg College in 1950. He is now a senior at the University of Maryland Dental School.

Hare — Mathias

Miss Jo Ann Rose Mathias, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph W. Mathias, Waynesboro, and George T. Hare, son of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Hare, Barrington, N. J., were united in marriage Saturday afternoon in the Waynesboro Evangelical Lutheran Church by the Rev. Robert Rau, Valley Forge Military Academy.

Miss Sonia Newlyn, Morton, was the maid of honor. The bridesmaids were Miss Josie Slifer, Gettysburg, and Miss Jacquelyn Sneider, Harrisburg.

Raymond — Phillips, Stratford, N. J., was the best man. The ushers were James Tarmen, York; Joseph Stevenson, Haddon Heights, N. J., and Lynn Mathias, Waynesboro.

The bride is a graduate of the Waynesboro High School, and Gettysburg College, class of 1953, where she was a member of Chi Omega Sorority.

Her husband, who was graduated from schools in Haddon Heights and from Gettysburg College, Class of 1952, is now a medical student at the New York Medical College, Flower and Fifth Avenue's Hospital, New York.

FBI Asks Help Of Borough Officers

Borough police Tuesday were notified by the Federal Bureau of Investigation to seek Bobby Lee Miller, alias James Blackstone, aged 16, who has escaped from federal detention in Charlotte, N. C.

Miller is wanted on a car stealing charge, the FBI reported to local police, and was traced as far as Harrisburg, where he boarded a bus for Gettysburg on Saturday morning. If he remained on the bus, according to the report, he would have arrived here about 11:35 p.m. Saturday.

The FBI warned that the youth "is dangerous and armed with a .22 and a .38 revolver. Standing five feet, 11 inches tall, the youth weighs 140 pounds, has a dark complexion, a scar at the right side of his mouth and was wearing a tan shirt and trousers. Police said they had not seen anyone resembling that description in the borough since they were notified to be on the look-out Monday evening.

Mrs. Ernest Ziegler, 18 N. Washington St., reported to borough police Monday evening that two boys had broken a window at her home, then called back later to notify the officers that the boys had voluntarily returned and offered to pay for the damage.

Order Issued In Farm Pond Case

The Adams County court handed down an order today in the equity action brought by Grover C. Chronister against Hugh K. and Mary Jane Hamm in which Chronister's bill was dismissed and he was ordered to pay the costs in the case.

Chronister in the summer of 1951 brought the suit against the Hamm, arguing that by constructing a farm pond on their farm in Hamilton Twp., they caused the lower end of his adjoining field, along the Hanover-Carlisle Rd., to become so wet he could not use it for planting.

The case involved several hearings and the county court went to the scene to personally inspect the land. The court held that such water as

Littlestown Schoolman Going To NEA Convention At Miami

Frank E. Basehoar, administrative assistant at the Littlestown Junior Senior High School, will take part in the 91st annual convention of the National Education Association in Miami Beach, Fla., June 28 to July 3. Mr. Basehoar has been selected as a delegate to represent the Adams County Branch of the Pennsylvania State Education Association at the convention of the NEA, a professional association for teachers. Approximately 3,500 delegates, representing every state as well as the District of Columbia, the territories of Alaska, Hawaii and Puerto Rico, will be there. Delegates will also attend the 32nd delegate assembly. An estimated 7,000 teachers, parents and lay people are expected to attend the convention.

There will be a series of panels with lay discussions on what freedom to learn implies, how to deal with textbook and curriculum critics; what are the forces affecting education today; loyalty legislation. Discussions by teachers and administrators will take place on the role of television in education; developing trends in reporting to parents; education of the physically and mentally handicapped; use of instructional materials prepared by non-school groups. A highlight of the convention will be the world premier showing of "Skiway and the Three R's," a sound color motion picture on the teaching of the fundamentals.

Theme of the convention for the teachers is "We pledge allegiance to the welfare of the nation's children, to the ideals of human brotherhood and to our country and a world at peace."

New books received for the month of June at the Littlestown Free Lending Library include: "Miracle of the Bells," Russell Janney; "The Far Lands," James Norman Hall; and "A Many Splendored Thing," Hans Suyin. The novel, "Postmarked Moscow," by Lydia Kirk was recently contributed to the library by Mrs. Anna B. Leach. The library, located on the second floor of the engine house, is open each Monday evening from 6 to 8:30 p.m.

The Lions defeated the Cardinals, 11-3, at the Littlestown Little League baseball game played on Monday evening. The Vets will oppose the Giants on Wednesday at 6:30 p.m., when a league game will be played on the playground.

Hear Wilbur Mackley

Wilbur E. Mackley, teacher of the Tuck-a-Bach Sunday School Class of St. John's Lutheran Church, was the guest speaker at the meeting of the Christian Endeavor Society of Christ Reformed Church, on Sunday evening. Mr. Mackley discussed the topic "Together, Yet Not Together." The Scripture was read by John H. Koons and LeRoy W. Berwager offered prayer. A vocal solo was sung by Miss Patsy Berwager. The orchestra played the offertory selection.

During the business meeting, in charge of the president, John Koons, final plans were made for the annual society outing to be held Thursday evening at 6:30 o'clock in the church grove. The meeting concluded with group singing and the Lord's Prayer and C. E. benediction were repeated in unison.

Members of the Littlestown 4-H Club will meet Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock at the home of Mildred Sites and Marjorie Gilbert.

Charles Slusser, George Schaefer and David S. Kammerer Jr. comprise the June refreshment committee for the meeting of the Littlestown Fish and Game Association Inc., on Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock at the club house, near town.

To Hold Bazaar
The Senior Choir of St. Paul's Lutheran Church will meet for rehearsal on Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Brownie Girl Scout Troop No. 16 will conduct a bazaar for the public on Wednesday, beginning at 4:30 p.m. on the community playground. Homemade cakes and fancy work will be sold. Refreshments will also be on sale. A fish pond will be conducted. In case of rain, the affair will be held Thursday.

Mrs. Albert H. Miller Jr., Mrs. Vernon Study and Mrs. Wilbur E. Mackley will serve as hostesses at the monthly meeting of the Ladies' Auxiliary to the Ocker-Snyder Post No. 321, American Legion on Wednesday at 8 p.m. at the Legion Home, E. King St.

The Littlestown Men's Chorus rehearsal has been cancelled for this week. The next rehearsal will be held Thursday, June 18, 9 p.m. at St. Paul's Church.

A gadget demonstration will be conducted at the June meeting of the Ladies' Aid Society of St. Luke's Union Church, near White Hall, on Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock, at the church. Members are asked to invite their friends to attend the demonstration. The hostess committee includes Mrs. Fred Hartlaub, chairman, Mrs. Harry Good, Miss Elva Good, Mrs. Wesley Ambrose, Mrs. John H. Hartlaub, Miss Betty Hartlaub and Miss Eileen Hartlaub.

The member of Boy Scout Troop No. 84 will meet on Wednesday at 6 p.m. at the Littlestown State Bank, and from there the group will go to the Littlestown Fish and Game Farm, near town, for an outdoor meeting.

Staff Officers

tended the session reaffirmed their decision to ignore an armistice based on the May 25 U. N. proposal, continue the war, and fight Indian troops if they land in Korea. The South Korean National Assembly was to hear a recommendation that it declare war on Indian troops if they come into Korea to guard prisoners after an armistice.

India, under the prisoner exchange agreement signed Monday, will provide troops — probably about 5,000 — to handle the POWs. Yoon Chi Yung, vice chairman of the Assembly's crisis committee, said he will offer the recommendation late Tuesday afternoon. Revision of the cease-fire line to follow the present battle line probably was one matter discussed by negotiators and staff officers. The original line was drawn up in November, 1951. Since then it has changed only slightly.

Observers anticipated no serious delay in reaching agreement on a new cease-fire line.

U. N. Officials Worried
The big obstacle was swept aside Monday with the signing of the agreement providing for voluntary prisoner exchange.

Still, the threat of continued South Korean warfare after a cease-fire agreement worried top U. N. officials.

There was no indication what would happen if the ROK armies refuse to acknowledge a truce. All fighting is to halt 12 hours after the armistice is signed. Within 72 hours troops of both sides are to pull back to create a buffer zone 2½ miles wide. And at the same time, machinery for the release of prisoners of war will be set in motion.

South Korean leaders were bitter over the prisoner exchange agreement. They said it failed to live up to the United Nations "fundamental principle of human freedom."

"RESTFUL READING"

Whe, you read some restful writing . . . don't you wish you were asleep . . . and the things of which you're reading . . . would within sweet dreaming keep . . . such as music softly playing . . . on a quiet afternoon . . . or a field of emerald clover . . . resting easy 'neath the moon . . . or perhaps a stream of water . . . gliding gently to and fro . . . while a fragrant incensed blow . . . may be lands of milk and honey . . . where the birds sing all the day . . . or a pleasant tranquil evening . . . when the stars give their bouquet . . . all of those make restful reading . . . now I'm tired, how about you . . . so I guess that restful sleeping . . . is the only thing to do.

THOUSANDS OF SOUTH KOREANS PROTEST TRUCE

SEOUL (AP) — Hundreds of thousands of chanting South Koreans surged through Seoul and other cities today in angry demonstrations against an impending armistice.

Some rocks were hurled by one mob of more than 100,000 which stormed a barricade of bayonet-wielding U. S. military policemen and Korean police outside the Eighth Army headquarters compound here.

Fire hoses played on the street ahead of the advancing mob halted its forward momentum. As the crowd milled around, 50 Korean policemen walked boldly in, shouting and shoving. A few minutes later the crowd began breaking up.

FATHER CASL TALKS TO LIONS

EMMITSBURG — The bimonthly meeting of the Lions Club of Emmitsburg was held Monday evening in the Parish House, President J. Ward Kerrigan presiding.

George Willhide reported briefly on the progress of the negotiations to date with an industrial concern interested in locating here. It is expected that the final arrangements of this project will be made in the near future.

Clarence Hahn and Ralph McDonald reported on the annual district convention which they attended in Atlantic City, N. J., last week.

Guest speaker was Rev. Fr. Karl Casl, assistant pastor of St. Joseph's Catholic Church, Emmitsburg. Father Casl spoke on the history of his native country, Yugoslavia.

President Ward Kerrigan announced a meeting of the Horse Show Committee to be held Wednesday evening at the home of Robert Daugherty, chairman of the committee. Plans for the affair scheduled to be held in the late summer will be made at the meeting. At the next regular meeting of the Lions Club the new officers will be officially installed.

To Choose Site Soon

Recently a Memorial Hall meeting was held to discuss the future of the community hall at length. Edward Emrick presided. Ralph Irland, president of the Chamber of Commerce, announced that plans have been developing well and that a site for the new community hall will be chosen in the next few weeks. But it was decided to continue the previous plans to raise as much money as possible for the project.

Representatives of the various organizations in Emmitsburg proposed an Emmitsburg Day to raise money for the Memorial Hall. It is intended that Emmitsburg Day will take the place of the annual carnival. The details of this project will be announced at a future date.

New officers were elected at this meeting. They are: President, Edward Emrick; vice president, B. H. Boyle; secretary, Mrs. Robert Daugherty, and treasurer, Thornton Rodgers.

WANTS EXCESS TAX DROPPED

WASHINGTON (AP) — The U. S. Chamber of Commerce, which had already dashed the hopes of high administration officials that it might go along with President Eisenhower's proposal to extend the excess profits tax six months, today formally asked Congress to let the tax die June 30.

There was a furor in the House Ways and Means Committee last week when it was learned Secretary of the Treasury Humphrey and Undersecretary Marion B. Folsom had approached members of the Chamber and the National Association of Manufacturers (NAM) about their opposition to the tax.

Some committee members proposed an investigation to determine if anti-lobbying laws had been violated. Humphrey said, however, that no one had been asked not to appear before the committee, but that the President's views had been pointed out in hopes that the organizations would at least remain neutral. After reconsideration, however, the government bodies of both businessmen's groups decided to continue opposition.

FIFTY YEARS AGO

Now that the Town Council has provided a means by which dirt and garbage is to be removed twice a week, our citizens should see that the dust, dirt, etc., in front of business places and residences, is placed on piles. The garbage man will be around every Tuesday and Friday.

Commencement Exercises: The closing exercises of the Seventy-first commencement of Pennsylvania College took place on Wednesday when ten of the Senior Class delivered addresses in Brua Chapel. All of the young men did well. The Valedictorian, Edward B. Hay, grandson of the late Dr. C. A. Hay, did especially well.

BANQUETS: The class of '93 was the only one to hold a reunion and banquet. The banquet was held at the Eagle Hotel and there were 19 of the class present.

The farewell banquet of the graduating class was held at the Eagle Hotel Wednesday night. Class President W. P. McLaughlin acted as toastmaster.

CORNERSTONE LAYING: At four o'clock Wednesday, June 3rd, the cornerstone of Alpha Tau Omega's new chapter house was laid. Rev. Chas. G. Bickle officiated as Master of Ceremonies. N. Wiley Thomas, who founded Penna. Alpha Upsilon Chapter, delivered the address of the day.

BUSINESS TRANSACTIONS BY TRUSTEES: The salaries of the teachers of the preparatory department were increased. The Junior class in Preparatory Department was discontinued.

The Rev. Samuel G. Hefelbower was elected Professor of the German Language and Instructor in French. J. B. Boyer and Frank Lyman were appointed proctors.

The selection of Dr. E. J. Wolf as President of the General Synod is an honor well bestowed. The doctor is a most able gentleman who is thoroughly familiar with the duties of a presiding officer and with parliamentary law and will prove himself a valuable official to the great body of Lutherans during his incumbency in office.

Proposed Arch: The Executive Committee having in charge the arrangements for the 40th anniversary of the Battle, are contemplating the erection of a handsome arch in Centre Square, on either side of which will be placed the word "Welcome." The arch will be handsomely decorated and be lighted by different colored electric lights. The corps badge of the different commands will also adorn the arch.

Marriages: Carter-Simms—June 2, in this place, by Rev. M. A. Mason, James Carter of this place, to Miss Annie E. Simms of Mr. Holly, Pa.

Heiges-Wagner—June 3, at Arendtsville, by Rev. D. T. Koser, Harry G. Heiges to Miss Margaret E. Wagner, both of Arendtsville.

Pemberton-Cline—June 2, at Gardner's Station, by Rev. Joseph Daugherty, Harry F. Pemberton, of Edgely, Pa., to Miss Zora Irene Cline, of Gardner's Station.

Warner-Shepard—June 1, in this place, by Rev. S. L. Rice, Oliver E. Werner, of York, to Miss Laura V. Shepard, of Gettysburg.

Topper-Neiderer—June 9, at McSherrystown, by Rev. Chas. Galligan, Felix V. Topper to Miss Anna M. Neiderer, both of McSherrystown.

Gettysburg School Board Organizes: On Monday evening the Gettysburg School Board organized by electing the following officers: Pres., Dr. T. C. Billheimer; secretary, Chas. H. Ruff; treasurer, Charles A. Blocher.

The old teachers were all re-elected and the salaries fixed the same as last year. The tax rate was fixed as follows: School purposes, 4 mills; building purposes, 2 mills.

Local Miscellany: Allan B. Plank has been elected superintendent of the Gettysburg Gas Works to succeed Geo. W. Barbehenn, resigned. Butter is said to be more plentiful.

Just Folks

BOYS AND BASEBALL
Though I know the baseball's better where the experts play for pay,
And the major exhibitions are the finest on display,
Still, for thrills and real excitement and for baseball battles hot,
Give me the way they play it on somebody's corner lot.
Give me that out-curve pitcher, much too serious to grin,
And every other player giving all he has to win.

Those games aren't played for money. They are played for victory's sake.

There's no salary hope connected with a hit a boy may make. And the lad that's in there pitching isn't thinking of a date.

Or did he tell his mother that for supper he'd be late. He's out there suffering heartache as the rival runs come in. He has only one idea: He is out there just to win.

You never hear the youngster on the corner playing ball. Ever voice the grown-up notion that, "You cannot win them all."

That's philosophy of men folk for the failure of a man. But the glory of the youngsters is they all believe they can. And I think while I watch them and I listen to their din,
They're not playing ball for money, they're playing ball to win.

Today's Talk

By GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS

DON'T BE A DOUBTER

Doubters are not a very inspiring brood — but perhaps they serve their end. For when a man is told that a certain thing cannot be done it spurs him on, puts fight and renewed confidence in him, and he usually does the thing people told him couldn't be done.

Over a hundred years ago British persistence and American vision finally produced the John Randolph, a ship made of iron, and launched on July 9th, 1834. Her plates were fabricated by John Laird of Birkenhead, England, and brought to the United States in a wooden vessel. The ship was 110 feet long, with a beam of 22 feet and a depth in her hold of nine to ten feet. Her bottom and sides were of rolled boiler plate a quarter of an inch in thickness.

The John Randolph was built for use on the Savannah River between Augusta and Savannah, Georgia. The boat was built for Gazaway B. Lamar, a Georgia banker and cotton merchant. Young Laird was convinced that an iron ship would float and so built a ship which went to Ireland. The order for John Randolph, therefore, became his second order.

Today we know that the iron ships have revolutionized methods of water transportation. In a single day, tons of naval vessels move through the Panama Canal with ease. Just a silent tribute to men like Laird and Lamar who are forever looking ahead and who have the courage to pay no attention to doubters!

It serves no good end to be a doubter. Who a few years ago would have believed the human voice could have traveled around the earth in almost a moment of time — without a single wire to guide it upon its journey? And now we have TV!

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "The Obvious Thing."

SENATE GETS SPEEDING BILL; LIST PENALTIES

HARRISBURG (AP)—The Senate today received a bill that would impose graduated penalties on convicted speeders based on how fast the driver was traveling at the time of arrest.

The House passed the measure yesterday by a 181-10 vote. At the same time the House defeated an amendment to the measure that would have given the Secretary of Revenue power to determine in specific cases whether a license should be suspended or not.

Under the passed measure this schedule of fines, first offense license suspensions and subsequent suspensions would be set up:

51-55 mph—$10, days, 30 days; 56-60 mph—$15, 10 days, 45 days; 61-65 mph—$20, 15 days, 45 days; 66-70 mph—$25, 15 days, 60 days; 71 mph and higher—$50, 30 days, 90 days.

A similar schedule would be set up for the Pennsylvania Turnpike which has speed limits of 60 and 70 mph.

90-Day Suspension
Present penalties call for a $10 fine and an automatic 90-day suspension of the operator's license.

The maximum speed on all Pennsylvania highways except the Turnpike is 50 mph.

The measure was sponsored by Reps. Reginald P. Stimmel (R-Lehigh), W. Mack Guthrie (R-Armstrong), Ray W. Greenwood (R-Wyoming) and Edward M. Young (R-Mercer).

Rep. Theodore H. Schmidt (D-Allegheny), who introduced the amendment calling for the (revenue Secretary) to have final say on who would lose their license or not, said that "in many cases there are technical violations of the law when there should not be mandatory imposition of a penalty."

Stimmel, however, said that the amendment would defeat the purpose of the bill.

"We can't legislate good judgment and common sense," he said.

BILL TRANSFERS EDUCATION COST TO LOCAL AREAS

HARRISBURG (AP)—Some 20 millions in state education costs would be transferred to local school districts under a proposal introduced by Sens. Edward J. Kessler (R-Lancaster) and Henry J. Probert (R-Montgomery).

Local responsibility would be increased under the measure introduced yesterday in the Senate so that school districts would pay a larger proportion of any automatic increases in teacher salaries.

The present law sets a unit subsidy, based on real estate value of the community, divided by the number of teaching units (30 pupils for elementary schools and 22 for a high school unit).

The "local effort rate," or rate the community pays, is determined by multiplying the unit rate by .004. The resulting figure is subtracted from the maximum subsidy per teaching unit, listed at $4,300 for the 1952-53 school year.

Under the proposed measure, the local effort rate would be increased to .0045 on the basis of a maximum subsidy of $4,500 for the 1953-54 school year. It would increase by .0002 each year until it reached .0055 in 1958-59, when the maximum subsidy of $5,500 is achieved.

Mrs. J. Emory Bair and Miss Mary Kohler spent several days last week with Hanover friends.

Frank Eberhart and daughter, Miss Lena, returned from Germany on Friday.

Misses Grace Schriver and Edna Pfeffer spent Sunday with the family of Jacob Deardorff at Rock Top Hotel, Cashtown.

Mrs. Elizabeth Wolf and grandson, Norman Wolf, a student at college, left last week for Abbotstown, where they will spend the summer.

CORONER'S JURY

road when he rounded the curve at the "pony" farm. He helped remove the victim from the car's wreckage.

Pvt. Brady described the turn in the road as "a gentle left curve" and said the Hall car had turned about on the wet road and skidded backwards about 96 feet when it hit the pole and rebounded onto the berm. The entire right side of the car was torn off, he said.

Car's Tires Smooth

The officer quoted Hall as telling him he was driving between 50 and 55 miles an hour when he started around the curve. He started to skid, turned his wheels to the left and the machine spun around out of control. The youth, who had graduated from Gettysburg High School the night before the accident, admitted the car's tires were smooth and the officer said his inspection verified there was little tread on any of the tires.

The driver's father, Vinton D. Hall, was called by Attorney Franklin R. Bigham, who with Attorney S. M. Raffensperger represented the Halls at the inquest. Hall said he had known the tires were smooth and that the wheels needed balancing but that he had neglected to take care of those repairs although he had put new shock absorbers on the car a week before the crash.

Pressed by the coroner for an opinion about the wisdom of his son's action in driving around the wet curve at 50 or 55 miles an hour with smooth tires, Hall replied, "I've gone around the same curve at the same speed in that car myself in any kind of weather."

To Decide On Charges

Daune Hall said the fatal mishap was his first accident in three years of driving. Asked by the coroner to assign a cause for the accident, the youth mentioned the smooth tires as the likely cause.

After the inquest District Attorney Daniel E. Teeter, who assisted the coroner at the inquest, said he will study the record of the inquest testimony to determine whether there is sufficient proof of "gross negligence" that would have to be shown to make out a manslaughter case. He indicated that only a summary offense may be charged.

Members of the jury were Mrs. Lloyd Palmer, Mrs. Ethel Crist, Harold Cromwell, Hugh Craig, James Baumgardner and Hugh C. McHenry.

War In Korea Was Heavy Drain On United States And Russia; Now, Who Has The Advantage?

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP)—Now, after three years of a shooting war with communism, who's ahead? The West can claim some advantages. So may the Communists.

This country, backed by the United Nations, set out to stop Communist aggression and it succeeded. After three years of the Korean fighting which began in June, 1950, the two armies face each other where the fighting began: at the 38th Parallel.

The stand taken by the U.N. in Korea may have discouraged Communist aggression elsewhere in those three years. If the Russians used Korea to see whether they could overrun one country after another without fear of war with the West, they found they couldn't.

Gain For West

The evidence that the U.N., with this country shouldering much of the burden, was willing to make great sacrifices in men and money to stop Communist attacks anywhere could not but strengthen other countries everywhere against the Communists. This was a gain by itself for the West.

And the Korean attack shocked the West, which until then had lain like an inert and weaponless giant on the Russian doorstep, into tight alliance and real rearmament. This was its greatest gain in the war.

But the alliance, the rearming and the fighting in Korea cost the Allies, particularly this country, plenty in men and money. The effect of this cost and of the three years of fighting which wound up nowhere has begun to show.

Allied Strength Wanes

Already, even though the Russian menace hasn't diminished, the West has begun to slow down on its arming long before being fully armed. And cracks in the alliance are beginning to appear.

Western Europe, much closer to the Russian threat than the U. S. urges this country to come to an understanding with the Russians, apparently in the blind hope that somehow maybe there can be peace.

If the Russians can play upon the mixed emotions of the Western Allies and split them even more, they will have won a lot of ground at no cost except for the breath it required to murmur "peace." The West began slowing down on armaments when the Russians began mild talk.

Drain On Russia

So if the Korean War has wearied the Allies to the point where they long for peace so much that they are willing to make greater compromises with the Communists than they would have three years ago, the Russians have gained. The Russians had to furnish great military supplies in the Korean War for the Chinese Communists, just as this country had to do most of the supplying on the U. N. side. This meant a greater burden on the Russian economy, just as it did here.

But in doing so they had to step up their arms production which strengthened their capacity for making larger war, if and when. In the Korean War the North Koreans and the Chinese did the dying on the Red side. And the supplies which the Chinese Communists had to deliver to Korea hit them at the very moment they were trying to improve China internally and thereby increase their control of it.

Chinese Tested Techniques
Yet, at the same time, the Chinese were able to use this war to test their fighting techniques and build up their armies, for even bigger adventures in Asia.

Cincinnati Reds Riding High Today On 5-Game Win Streak; Take 8-5 Verdict Over Dodgers

By BEN PHLEGAR
AP Sports Writer

Rogers Hornsby, reportedly on the skids as manager of Cincinnati as recently as a week ago, was riding high today with a five-game winning streak and the sluggingest club in the majors.

With the advent of June the happy Redlegs have busted out all over. They've pulverized opposition pitching for 65 hits in their last five games, producing 46 runs in their longest victory string of the season.

The word was spread late last month that the Cincinnati players were fed up with Hornsby and his iron hand rule. The club was down, both mentally and in the standings.

Smith Best In National

But on their current road trip the Redlegs are playing at a .750 clip, winning six of eight, including an 8-5 verdict last night over the Brooklyn Dodgers, who were trying for five in a row of their own.

Starting in the revival are sluggers Gus Bell and Ted Kluszewski and relief ace Frank Smith. Bell has driven in 10 runs in the last five games. His 11 hits over that span include six for extra bases. Big Klue hammered his 16th home run last night, moving within one of the league lead.

Smith has the National League's best pitching average. He won his fifth straight game as he took over from wobbly Howie Judson at Brooklyn in the fourth and protected the Redlegs' lead.

Braves Plaster Giants

Cincinnati's most recent success was a bitter pill for the Dodgers, who slipped a full game behind the Milwaukee Braves. The Braves plastered the New York Giants, 12-8, in an afternoon contest.

The St. Louis Cardinals, who had lost five straight, battled 12 innings against the Pittsburgh Pirates, winless in their last four starts, before picking up a 5-3 triumph. Philadelphia defeated Chicago, 7-3, in the other National League game.

In the only American League contest the Detroit Tigers finally won a game after 13 setbacks interspersed with two extra-inning ties. The Tigers scored four runs in the seventh inning to whip Boston, 6-3, for their first success since May 22.

Giants, Cubs Look Bad

A single by Walt Dropo brought home one run and two more scored on a triple by Matt Batts in the seventh-inning rally.

Cincinnati got ahead in a hurry at Brooklyn, scoring twice in the first inning on Bell's two-run homer and then adding five more in the fourth on five singles, including a two-run blow by Bell, and a pair of walks.

The Giants and Cubs both suffered fielding collapses that would have looked pretty bad in a class D league.

Surkont's 7th Win

At the Polo Grounds the New Yorkers, ahead 2-1, presented Milwaukee with four unearned runs in the sixth inning on three errors and one lone hit. With the gates opened, the Braves poured in seven more runs in the next two frames to move ahead 12-2 before the Giants got recovered.

Max Surkont registered victory No. 7 for Milwaukee against one loss with Sal Maglie taking the defeat, his first at the hands of the Braves in two seasons.

At Connie Mack Stadium the Cubs committed four errors in the second inning which permitted the Phillies to score four runs—their eventual margin of victory.

Win In 12 Innings

Steve Riddick, who took over from Bob Miller in the fifth inning, was the Philadelphia winner over Paul Minner.

Steve Bilko doubled home Red Schoendienst with the tie-breaking St. Louis run in the top of the 12th at Pittsburgh and rode in on a single by Rip Repulski. The rally climaxed a pitcher's battle in which Paul LaPalme, knuckleballing southpaw of the Pirates, struck out 11 and walked only three in 11 innings. He was lifted for a pinch-hitter and the winning runs came off Johnny Hetki.

Four hurlers toiled for the Cardinals with Al Brazile, the third man, getting the decision.

Stock Car Races At Williams Grove

WILLIAMS GROVE, Pa. — First of the 1953 season, a program of late model stock car racing sanctioned by the American Automobile Association will be presented on Roy Richwine's half-mile Williams Grove Speedway on Sunday, June 14.

A large field of cars and drivers will include stars of the Indianapolis Classic, veterans of big car and midget auto racing, and the top-flight drivers in the sport of stock car racing itself, attracted by the large purse being offered by Richwine for the program.

WILLIAMSPORT IS IN CELLAR

By The Associated Press
The Williamsport Athletics, known as the Tigers last season, are right-back where they left off in 1952—in the Eastern League cellar.

The A's won a tussle for eighth place by losing to the Scranton Miners, 6-3, last night, after the two clubs had been tied in the standings for a day.

In other games, the Elmira Pioneers beat the Schenectady Blue Jays, 4-1, the Reading Indians overpowered the Wilkes-Barre Barons, 10-0, and the Binghamton Triplets defeated the Albany Senators, 6-1.

Wins Fourth Tilt

Dick Welteroth, a native of Williamsport, posted his fourth victory for Scranton by holding the visiting Athletics to seven safeties. Howie Howerton led the Miners' 10-hit attack on loser Walt Kellner with a triple that scored three runs in the eighth innings.

At Schenectady, the Pioneers' Ernie Nichols cut the Blue Jays down with eight hits in gaining his sixth victory. Dan Ramer, hampered by four errors behind him, took his fifth loss.

Bill Meyer and Billy Harrell teamed up to hand the Barons a walloping in Wilkes-Barre. Meyer tossed a four-hitter and banged out two of Reading's 15 safeties. Harrell hit four times in six chances. Bill Sherman was the loser.

Four Albany errors gave Mike Schultz a long lead at Binghamton. The Triplet righthander issued only six hits to the Senators, one a run-scoring double by Fred Lanifer. The Trips collected 11 hits from loser John Watson, former Villanova star making his first appearance of the season, and John Ahern.

POISON BILL IS SENT TO SENATE

HARRISBURG (AP) — A House-passed bill giving the State Game Commission specific powers to use poison against predators such as foxes was studied by a Senate committee today.

Chairman C. Arthur Blass (R-Erie) of the committee on Forests and Waters, Game and Fish, declined to comment on what the fate of the measure will be until he has sufficient opportunity to study its ramifications.

The bill was referred to Blass' committee late yesterday after being sent to the upper chamber by the House.

The measure stipulates that the Game Commission would have to obtain permission from the landowner before scattering poison bait in any area to cut down wildlife predators.

The project also would have to be started within a 30-day period after it is decided upon.

In addition, the owner of the property on which the poisoning campaign is carried out would have the power to halt the drive at any time by written notice to the Commission.

The measure is an outgrowth of trespass charges lodged against Thomas R. Frye, executive director of the Game Commission, last year during a poison bait drive against foxes. Frye was acquitted.

NEW BISON COACH

LEWISBURG, Pa. (AP) — James (Smoky) Ostendard, Baltimore, is the new assistant football coach and wrestling coach at Bucknell University.

Albert E. Humphreys, athletic director at Bucknell, said Ostendard fills a vacancy created by the departure of Herb Maack for Rhode Island State. The new coach was a Bucknell halfback during the 1948 and 1949 seasons.

Conrado Marrero, 38-year old righthanded pitcher for the Washington Senators, is nicknamed "Guajiro," which in Spanish means "hillbilly."

Eagles vs. Moose.

Two big surprises took place in Softball League games Monday evening when the Elks tripped the VFW 4-1 and the Eagles edged the Texas Lunch 6-3.

Bob Hixon turned in a one-hit pitching performance for the Elks, a single by Fazenbaker being the lone safety secured off his slants. The Elks tabbed a run in the second and what proved to be the winning run in the third on Woodward's walk and a triple by Smith.

Two more runs in the fifth gave Hixon a substantial margin.

In the nighttime the Eagles broke into the win column for the first time after exhibiting their best game of the season. The Texas Lunch took a 3-0 lead after three innings but the Eagles knotted the count in the fifth. In the sixth frame Forsythe doubled. Redding was safe on an error as Forsythe tallied and Redding raced home on a wild pitch. The Eagles tabbed their final run in the seventh on a single by Yarmark and three-base blow by Knox.

TENNIS "UMP" WORKS FREE IN MANY TOURNEYS

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—Roy Wilder officiates tennis for nothing and has traveled 250,000 miles in three years to do it.

Wilder umpires in six languages—French, German, Italian, Spanish, English and Russian.

At the Pan-American tournament last year, he umpired over 80 per cent of the matches in perfect Spanish.

Wilder played tennis out of necessity, he says. "I had to have more strenuous exercise than riding a bike and delivering papers."

The reason was that as a boy he fell and hit the back of his neck, causing a blood clot. His left side was paralyzed.

Annually you'll find his name among the first-round casualties in the major tournaments because Roy umpires tennis better than he plays it.

Pays Own Expenses

He pays his own expenses everywhere he goes.

He travels to Wimbledon to watch the matches and has been in France, Mexico and South America. Recently he witnessed some tournaments in Florida. He has umpired at all the major tennis centers except Wimbledon. "I was asked to officiate there, but I turned it down," he says. "I'd rather watch the tennis."

"Umpiring is never a tough job if the ballboys and linesmen are trained," he says. He always issues typewritten instructions to the ballboys and linesmen.

Wilder was a bookkeeper for 14 years in his native Corpus Christi, Tex. He gave it up to follow the tennis nomads.

CLOSE VOTE IN ITALY PERILS PRO-AMERICAN GOVERNMENT

ROME (AP)—A close, see-saw vote count put Italy's pro-American government in peril today of losing the legislative majority it needs to insure ratification of the European army plan and continue its record of postwar stability.

Premier Alcide de Gasperi's NATO-allied center coalition appeared certain to emerge as Italy's strongest faction, but steady Communist strength and the sky-rocketing extreme right wing of Monarchists and Fascists threatened to leave the parliamentary balance of power with a half-dozen minor and a splinter parties lined up with neither the government nor the opposition.

With senatorial votes being counted ahead of those for the more important Chamber of Deputies, the final outcome appeared likely to remain in doubt until sometime tomorrow. The senatorial tally was watched closely as an indication of how the government would fare finally.

94 Per Cent Voted
The total of 28,386,610 votes cast was enormous, almost 94 per cent of the electorate. It was probably the heaviest percentage turnout in

Billy May Will Play At Hershey

Experience gained while serving as an arranger for John Scott Trotter, Woody Herman, Charlie Barnet and the late Glenn Miller gave Billy May the background he sought to front his own orchestra, which will play for dancers at Hershey Park Ballroom Saturday evening.

The May band, launched just two years ago, scored an immediate hit with the release of its first three platters, including the popular "All of Me" and "My Silent Love." May is featuring his new approach to dance music, which marks a departure from current vocal specialties and employs instead, arrangements slanted to encourage dancing.

In lieu of individual soloists, May will present a new vocal quintet, "The Encores," consisting of four men and a girl.

Free concerts in the park bandshell on Sunday will be played by Maynard McKissick and His Orchestra, of Harrisburg. McKissick's group will be heard from 2 until 4 and 7 until 9 o'clock.

First of a series of free aerial acts will be presented at the park athletic field beginning Tuesday, June 16.

SAVING LIVES ONLY BENEFIT FROM KOREAN TRUCE ACCORD

WASHINGTON (AP)—Congress members, wary of possible Communist trickery, balanced liabilities against assets today and found little beyond the paramount saving of lives to approve in a Korean truce.

Without notable exception the lawmakers expressed hope that the Republic of Korea government will accept an armistice and avoid what some of them said otherwise could become a dangerous situation for American troops on the battle line.

Unanimously, legislators who commented were happy that the shooting seems likely to stop within a few days.

Costs, Problems Go On
But there was evident dissatisfaction with the truce terms, mixed with a realization among the legislators that a cease-fire will bring little, if any, decline in American expenditures and will offer no solution to pressing Asiatic political problems.

Senators Ferguson (R-Mich) and Maybank (D-SC) joined in throwing doubt on the possibility of making any material savings as a result of cessation of the fighting. The two, both members of the Senate Appropriations Committee, said in separate interviews they expect immediate requests for U. S. economic aid in Korea to eat up most of the economies that might accrue from halted military operations.

Best Truce Possible
Chairman Wiley (R-Wis) of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee found little that pleased him in the truce terms, although he said U. S. military negotiators "contend that the assets do indeed outweigh the debts and that this was the best truce that could be arranged under the difficult circumstances."

He said many features of the truce "very obviously lend themselves to Communists." Commenting that the U. S. will honor its agreements, he added: "But the entire Communist record proves that a Communist will honor an agreement only so long as he feels it to his advantage to do so and that, thereafter, he will break the agreement with utter disregard for his contractual obligations."

Addresses CD Group
Col. Acker spoke to 28 representatives of Civil Defense organizations throughout the county at a meeting at the Court House at 8 o'clock, following the service clubs dinner at the Legion. plies of the nation. If fear our government might have to say, as the Japanese did — "We surrender."

"And then it would be quiet for a short time. Then the armies of Russia, men by nature able to withstand cold, would move in by submarine and airplane, over the pole, into Canada, down into the United States. The Russian commissars would take over and say: 'We need so much food, so many homes, so much clothing, so many women for our men.' And we would have no choice but to give them."

"And do not deceive yourself, that is the way the oriental armies fight. They take what they need and want. And you can do nothing to stop them."

Need Warning System
"Our only hope is to set up a nation-wide warning system. Our country is so large, that we cannot maintain enough planes and enough of an army to have planes and soldiers everywhere. So our hope is to set up air raid warning centers every eight miles across the country, from north to south and east to west."

"Those centers could give the warning when enemy planes come and give our planes the few moments they need to get to them and shoot them down before they reach vital targets."

"To set up this vast network we need your help in Adams County, and we need similar citizens elsewhere to man other stations."

"We can plan our civil defense needs, but we have not enough doctors, enough nurses, nor enough plasma to take care of the wounded if only a few enemy planes, out of their thousands, get in."

"And radar will not solve the problem, because it is good only at high levels."

"The problem is up to you, to spot every plane before it can get far. I urge you to offer your services to your chairman, Crosby Hartzell. We have been in extreme danger for two years, let's not wait until it is too late."

move on to the next. They did not know that period in world history has passed with the advent of the airplane.

"Today we are faced with jet planes and atom bombs."

"The atom bomb means we can be placed in the same position as Japan."

U. S. Faces Crisis
"We dropped two atom bombs on Japan and then asked her: 'Do you surrender or do we drop another?' She surrendered."

"Those bombs were only one-fifth as powerful as the atom bombs of today."

"Never before have we been in such a critical position in our history."

"The differences between communism and democracy are so great that I cannot see how they can be reconciled without conflict. You can't trust a Communist. His word means nothing."

"The attack, if it comes, will come overnight, without warning."

"We will get the attack, possibly Christmas Eve, possibly next week, possibly tonight. We will wake up to destruction and desolation and the Russians asking the question this time: 'Will you surrender or do you want more?' as we asked Japan."

"We'd Have No Choice"

"Whether or not you think there are any targets in Adams County, there are. You've got to be prepared. You've got to take a look at the facts, and take out collective insurance."

In closing, Col. Acker said, "The Christian religion has been the greatest vehicle of progress in the history of the world. Wherever it has gone progress has followed, and we can't see it lost. But to Communists, Christianity is wrong and if they win, there won't be a church in the world."

Seek Data On Segregation In Public Schools

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Supreme Court wants more information before it decides whether social segregation in public schools violates the constitution.

After considering the issue for six months, the highest tribunal yesterday ordered new arguments to be heard beginning next Oct. 12—one week after the court opens its fall term.

The final decision may come late this year, or it could be put over until some time in 1954.

Before putting off decision of the school cases, the Court in an 8-0 ruling said an 1873 law applying to the District of Columbia remains in effect and requires restaurants and bars here to serve negroes.

The nine justices had heard three days of argument on the school issue, beginning last Dec. 9.

Want More Facts
In ordering re-argument, the Court told lawyers on each side of the burning issue that it wanted to know what evidence there was that Congress and the states in approving the 14th Amendment understood, or did not understand, that public school segregation was to be abolished.

The amendment, adopted after the Civil War, says "states may not abridge the privileges and immunities of citizens, nor deny them equal protection of the law."

The Supreme Court said it wanted to know, also, if it had the power, in construing the Amendment, to abolish segregation. It asked if a Supreme Court ruling against segregation would require an immediate decree admitting Negro children to schools of their choice, or if it might permit a gradual adjustment to a public school system having no color distinction.

In event segregation eventually is declared invalid, the Court asked if it should appoint a special master to recommend specific terms for final decrees. This special master procedure usually consumes several years.

MISS RUTH DOUD

YWCA. During the Second World War years she was a USO director, and later program director at Wilkes-Barre.

Miss Doud resigned her Scranton position as of September 1, 1949, to come to Gettysburg as executive director.

Eighteen members attended the board meeting. Mrs. Frank H. Kramer, vice president, presided. Devotions were conducted by Mrs. Fred Pfeffer, the treasurer's report was given by Mrs. Clark S.

Corps in conjunction with radar in "spotting" enemy planes and intercepting and destroying them.

In introducing Col. Acker, Mr. Weaver appealed to those at the meeting: "Go back into your communities and carry on the work to help organize the Ground Observer Corps in Adams County."

Col. Acker said it takes one in every three of the nation's civilian population to set up and maintain civil defense.

"Atomic energy is ideal against civilian populations," Col. Acker said. "Through its use the war can be carried directly to the civilian and his factories and transportation. Military forces may be by-passed. The air force is today our front line of defense."

Gettysburg, Littlestown and other places in Adams County could be bombed, he said.

Open To Bombing
"You know how it was in the last war. Bombers never returned with their bomb loads. If they couldn't get to their targets, they dropped them somewhere else. It will still be that way. If our interceptors keep the enemy planes away from Philadelphia, Baltimore or other large centers, the bombs may be dropped on Adams County."

"Whether or not you think there are any targets in Adams County, there are. You've got to be prepared. You've got to take a look at the facts, and take out collective insurance."

In closing, Col. Acker said, "The Christian religion has been the greatest vehicle of progress in the history of the world. Wherever it has gone progress has followed, and we can't see it lost. But to Communists, Christianity is wrong and if they win, there won't be a church in the world."

Miss Ruth Doud
The board voted to close the YWCA building during August. No activities will be scheduled and no dinners served to the Rotary Club. The building will be cleaned in preparation for the fall season. Mrs. Pfeffer, volunteer personnel chairman, reported on schedules being set up and asked volunteers for office work to report to her.

Mrs. John S. Rice reported on a lecture given by Dr. Bertha Paulsen, of the Lutheran Seminary, and on a meeting of the Community Building group. Another meeting of the latter will be held June 23. The World Fellowship Committee will sell tulip bulbs in the fall and orders will be taken by Mrs. S. Richard Eisenhart.

Y-Teens Going To Camp
Mrs. E. E. Korte, Y-Teen chairman, reported on a dinner for college women who helped at the "Y" during the past winter, and said that two Y-Teens will be sent to camp at Reading this summer. Mrs. Conway S. Williams reported for the Rotary Committee. Mrs. Guyon E. Buehler, finance chairman, reported receipt of $48 from Miss Jean Biggs, chairman of the county financial campaign in Orrtanna, York Springs, she said, is the only community not yet reported.

Mrs. Kramer said Mrs. Ruth Wisler had requested volunteers for the information booth.

Miss Doud gave her statistical report, which showed that 80 meetings were held at the "Y" during May, with a total attendance of 1,495. The board will meet again at the call of the vice president.

Seek Data On Segregation In Public Schools

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Supreme Court wants more information before it decides whether social segregation in public schools violates the constitution.

After considering the issue for six months, the highest tribunal yesterday ordered new arguments to be heard beginning next Oct. 12—one week after the court opens its fall term.

The final decision may come late this year, or it could be put over until some time in 1954.</

ROSENBERGS
DENIED AGAIN

NEW YORK (AP)—Federal Judge Irving R. Kaufman refused again yesterday to grant a new trial to condemned atom spies Julius and Ethel Rosenberg.

The judge also refused to grant a stay of execution pending appeal of the denial of a new trial.

The latest in a long series of moves by defense counsel involved four hours of argument before Kaufman, who originally sentenced the New York City couple to death more than two years ago.

U. S. Atty. J. Edward Lumbard opposed the defense moves.

The Rosenbergs are scheduled to die in the electric chair at Sing Sing Prison, Ossining, N. Y., on the night of June 18 for conspiracy to transmit atomic secrets to Russia.

Don't use abrasive scouring powders or steel wool on plastic food-storage containers because these cleaning agents may scratch the interior surfaces of the containers. Because plastic is non-porous, it won't transmit food odors or tastes, but food caught in the tiny scratches may cause trouble.
